

CHANDLOR HENDERSON

Springfield, Oregon | 541-654-9507 | chandlor@berkeley.edu | chandlorhenderson.com

Fellowships & Recognition

- 2026 Dean's Fellowship — UC Berkeley Graduate School of Journalism
- 2024 McNair Summer Research Fellow — University of Oregon
- 2024 CURE (Center for Undergraduate Research & Engagement) Fellow — University of Oregon
- 2024 NABJ Student Scholarship — National Association of Black Journalists
- 2023 Monetta Sleet III Scholarship — NABJ
- 2022 Portland Art Museum Curatorial Intern — Photography
- 2021 NABJ × Café Media Entrepreneur Academy
- 2020 NABJ Student Scholarship — National Association of Black Journalists
- 2020 Google News Initiative Fellowship

Awards

- 2023 Runner-Up — AEJMC Student Magazine Contest, Essay Category (Flux Magazine, UO)
- 2022 3rd Place — Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association, Best Headline Writing (The Torch, LCC)
- 2022 3rd Place — Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association, Best Editorial (The Torch, LCC)

Education

- UC Berkeley | Expected 2028
- University of Oregon | School of Journalism and Communication | June 2025
- B.S. Journalism · Minor in Comics and Cartoon Studies
- UO NABJ: Co-Director (2022/23), Treasurer & Community Outreach Co-Head (2023/24)
- Lane Community College | Eugene, OR | December 2024
- Associate of General Studies · Multimedia Design Program

Experience

- Editor-in-Chief — The Torch — Lane Community College | Jan 2021–Dec 2022 & Sep 2024–Jan 2025
  - Led student-run publication twice, first hired to sustain operations through COVID-19, then rehired to revive the paper after the website went down in 2024.
  - Revived the print edition of the newspaper in 2025 after a six-year hiatus, generating regional press coverage including KLCC public radio.
  - Managed editorial staff-maintained publication schedule, and upheld journalistic standards across print and digital platforms.
  - Won two Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association awards under editorial leadership (Best Headline Writing, Best Editorial, 2022).
- Freelance Journalist — Eugene Weekly | 2019–2025
  - Published 30+ bylined stories across beats including local government, labor, arts and culture, housing, BIPOC community, and cannabis industry coverage.
  - Covered the No Kings March in Springfield (March 2025) with photojournalism; navigated ethical publication decisions involving minors.
- Museum Education Program Assistant — Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art — University of Oregon | Jan 2022–Jun 2025
  - Progressed through multiple roles: Events Crew, Education Department Intern, and Front Desk Attendant.
  - Helped coordinate and manage NewArt Northwest, an annual juried art competition and exhibit serving K–12 students across Lane County.
- Curatorial Intern (Photography) — Portland Art Museum | Summer 2022
  - Managed social media accounts for the Portland Art Museum, creating and publishing content across multiple platforms throughout the summer.
- Special Projects Assistant — Campus & Community Engagement — University of Oregon Division of Equity & Inclusion | Jul 2022–Jun 2023
  - Supported the CACE team across administrative and programmatic functions, including coordination of the Leadership Enrichment Internship.

Research

- 2024 CURE Summer Research Fellow — Center for Undergraduate Research and Engagement, UO
- 2023 McNair Summer Research Fellow — University of Oregon

Skills

- Reporting: Investigative, feature, arts & culture, local government, education, BIPOC community
- Multimedia: Podcast production, video production, photojournalism, on-camera presenting
- Digital: Google Trends, CMS/web publishing, social media management, website design & maintenance
- Research: Audience analysis, data-driven storytelling, undergraduate research methodology

Community

- GRIOT Greatness Realized in Our Time mentorship program — Lane Community College (Spring 2023–Present)
- Boys to Mentors Lane ESD (Spring 2023)